About the Club at Boulder Ridge

The Golf Club at Boulder Ridge opened in October of 2001 on 200 acres in the foothills above Lake Almaden. Award winning golf course architect Brad Benz designed the 18 hole course, which offers views of the Almaden and Santa Clara Valleys. It was built to protect, enhance and use the area's natural features. The club also offers a practice facility, including a grass range, an 11,000 square foot practice putting green, a chipping area and a bunker practice green.

Rocke and Glenda Garcia are the owners of Boulder Ridge. The Garcias are long-time builders in the greater San Jose area and Glenda is the designer of the beautiful new 21,000 square foot clubhouse. It took nearly two years to complete and just had its grand opening in February 2007. The clubhouse is the home for its 230 members and offers scenic views of the Almaden and Santa Clara Valley from most of its rooms. Information on membership can be obtained by calling Charles Conway at 408-323-9900 ext. 117.

Via Services

For more than 60 years, Via Services has improved the lives of thousands of individuals with disabilities and special needs throughout Santa Clara Valley. They provide screening and evaluation services, early intervention strategies, recreation and inclusion programs as part of their mission to help children and adults with disabilities achieve greater self-sufficiency and lead richer lives.
